Saint Fidelis of Sigmaringen, Priest and Martyr

OPENING

O God, come to my assistance.

Lord, make haste to help me.

Lord, open my lips.

And my mouth will proclaim your praise.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

HYMN

This Is the Day

This is the day, this is the day that the Lord has made, that the Lord has made;
we will rejoice, we will rejoice,
and be glad in it, and be glad in it.

Alleluia! Christ is risen!
Death is conquered by his love;
all creation sings with gladness:
praise him, earth below and heaven above.

At the break of Easter morning
Mary came and found the tomb;
but the stone was rolled away, and Jesus met her in the gloom.

Now the Lord of life is risen;
now our sorrow turns to song;
we who walked in death's dark shadow are set free from all that long.

Psalm 51 Have Mercy on Me, O God

> Ant. This is the day the Lord has made; let us be glad and rejoice in it. Alleluia.

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your great mercy.

And according to the multitude of your compassions, wipe away my iniquity.

Wash me yet more from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.

For I know my iniquity, and my sin is always before me.

Against you alone have I sinned, and I have done evil before you.

And so you are justified in your words, and you will prevail when you are judged.

For behold, I was conceived in iniquities, and in sin my mother conceived me.

For behold, you have loved truth; the unknown and secret things of your wisdom you have made clear to me.

You will sprinkle me with hyssop, and I will be cleansed; you will wash me, and I will be made whiter than snow.

To my hearing you will give joy and gladness, and the humbled bones will rejoice.

Turn your face away from my sins, and wipe away all my iniquities.

Create a clean heart in me, O God, and renew a right spirit within my inmost being.

Cast me not away from your face, and take not your holy spirit from me.

Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and strengthen me with a princely spirit.

I will teach the unjust your ways, and the impious will be converted to you.

Rescue me from blood, O God, the God of my salvation, and my tongue will extol your justice.

O Lord, you will open my lips, and my mouth will proclaim your praise.

For if you had wanted sacrifice, I would certainly have given it; but with burnt offerings you will not be delighted.

A sacrifice to God is a broken spirit; a contrite and humbled heart, O God, you will not despise.

Deal kindly, O Lord, in your good will with Zion, so that the walls of Jerusalem may be built up.

Then you will accept the sacrifice of justice, oblations and burnt offerings; then they will lay calves upon your altar.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

> Ant. This is the day the Lord has made; let us be glad and rejoice in it. Alleluia.

Psalm 147 Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem (Part II)

> Ant. Christ our Passover has been sacrificed; let us therefore celebrate the feast. Alleluia.

Who sends his crystal like morsels; before the face of his cold, who will endure?

He will send out his word and will melt them; his wind will blow and the waters will flow.

Who announces his word to Jacob, his justices and his judgments to Israel.

He has not done in this way for every nation, and his judgments he has not made manifest to them.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

> Ant. Christ our Passover has been sacrificed; let us therefore celebrate the feast. Alleluia.

OLD TESTAMENT CANTICLE

OLD TESTAMENT CANTICLE (HABAKKUK 3:2–4, 13–19)

O Lord, I have heard your voice and I feared; O Lord, your work, in the midst of years, bring it to life.

In the midst of years, you will make it known; when you are angry, you will remember mercy.

God will come from the south, and the holy one from mount Paran.

His glory covered the heavens, and the earth is full of his praise.

His splendor is like the light; horns are in his hands.

There his strength has been hidden; before his face a pestilence will go.

You went forth for the salvation of your people, for salvation with your Christ.

You struck the head of the house of the wicked; you laid bare his foundation, even to the neck.

Although the fig tree will not blossom, and there will be no offspring on the vines;

the work of the olive tree will fail, and the fields will produce no food;

the sheep will be cut off from the fold, and there will be no cattle in the stalls;

but I will rejoice in the Lord, and I will exult in God my Jesus.

The Lord God is my strength, and he will place my feet like the feet of hart.

And he, the conqueror, will lead me forth, singing psalms.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

GOSPEL CANTICLE: BENEDICTUS (LUKE 1:68-79)

THE CANTICLE OF ZECHARIAH (BENEDICTUS) (LUKE 1:68–79)

> Ant. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. Alleluia.

Blessed is the Lord, the God of Israel, because he has visited and accomplished the redemption of his people.

And he has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of David his servant.

As he spoke through the mouth of his holy prophets, those who have been from the beginning:

Salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us.

To show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant, the oath which he swore to our father Abraham, that he would grant to us, that being freed from the hand of our enemies, we might serve him without fear, in holiness and justice before him, throughout all our days.

And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High; for you will go before the face of the Lord, to prepare his ways.

To give knowledge of salvation to his people, for the remission of their sins, through the compassionate mercy of our God, by which the Rising Sun has visited us from on high, to illuminate those sitting in darkness and in the shadow of death, to direct our feet in the way of peace.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be forever. Amen.

> Ant. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it. Alleluia.

MORNING INTERCESSIONS

Rejoicing in the resurrection of the Lord, let us offer our prayers, saying:

For the church throughout the world, that it may proclaim the resurrection with boldness and joy: we pray to you, O Lord. — Lord, hear us. Alleluia.

For the newly baptized, that they may grow in the faith they have received and be sustained by the Easter community: we pray to you, O Lord. — Lord, hear us. Alleluia.

For all who are in darkness or despair, that the light of Easter may dawn in their lives: we pray to you, O Lord. — Lord, hear us. Alleluia.

For those who have died in the hope of resurrection, that they may share fully in the Easter victory of Christ: we pray to you, O Lord. — Lord, hear us. Alleluia.

For all nations, that the peace of the risen Christ may overcome division and bring reconciliation: we pray to you, O Lord. Lord, hear us. Alleluia.

For ourselves, that we may live as Easter people, bringing the good news of new life to those around us: we pray to you, O Lord. Lord, hear us. Alleluia.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Let us pray as the Lord himself has taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

CONCLUDING PRAYER

O God, who made this most holy night to shine with the glory of the Lord's resurrection, grant that as we celebrate the joy of the resurrection we may experience its transforming power in our lives; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

DISMISSAL

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.

May almighty God bless us: the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

Thanks be to God.
